Pre-Employment Declaration

RECRUITMENT DECLARATION IN CONNECTION WITH AN APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT IN THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN PUBLIC SECTOR

Instruction to applicants:

Whether you are an existing public sector employee or from outside the public sector, to be eligible to receive an offer of employment within the Department for Correctional Services, you must complete a pre-employment declaration. You may also be required to agree to other pre-employment processes.

The information derived in this declaration and other pre-employment processes is necessary to assess the suitability of applicants to be offered employment in the Department for Correctional Services, having regard to an applicant's ability to perform the technical aspects of a role and in consideration of the ethical obligations on public sector employees. Some information is necessary to seek to ensure the Crown and responsible officers of the Crown comply with their obligations under the Work Health and Safety Act 2012. Some information is necessary in seeking to ensure public sector agencies meet workplace diversity targets.

The information is collected and will be managed in accordance with the State Records Act 1997 and destruction schedules issued under that Act and the Cabinet Administrative Instruction 1/89 known as the Information Privacy Principles Instruction and Premier and Cabinet Circular No. 12.

You should be aware that the definition of misconduct in the Public Sector Act 2009 includes providing a false statement in connection with an application for engagement as a public sector employee.

This Pre-Employment Declaration is issued by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment in accordance with the minimum requirements outlined in the Directions of the Premier - Recruitment.

DECLARATION:

I declare that the information in this declaration and in any other documents completed by me and/or any other statement made by me in support of my application for employment in the South Australian public sector, and the information provided by me in connection with my application for employment in the South Australian public sector, including in any interview, is true and correct in every detail.

DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

I acknowledge that, if my application for employment in the Department for Correctional Services is successful and I am employed either in the position for which I have applied or in any other position, I may, during the course of that employment, gain access to confidential information. Detailed provisions regarding storage, disclosure, sharing and otherwise dealing with confidential information are contained in legislation, instruments and instructions binding public sector employees. Without detracting from any such legislation, instruments or instructions, unless such information is clearly not of a confidential nature, and unless I am expressly advised to the contrary by appropriate supervisors, all such information is to be treated as confidential. The expression "confidential information" as used in this declaration means all information which must be treated as being of a confidential nature. I understand that I must not disclose or make use of that confidential information, during or after my employment, except in the proper course of my duties, as authorised or as required by law. In particular, I undertake not to use any confidential information gained by virtue of any public sector employment, with the intent of securing a benefit for myself, any person, company, or any future employer. In any case where I am in doubt as to whether information gained during employment in the South Australian public sector is confidential and/or how such information should be managed, I undertake to seek advice and instruction from a supervisor or manager.

POTENTIAL OR ACTUAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST

I undertake that, if my application for employment in the Department for Correctional Services is successful and I am employed either in the position for which I have applied or in any other position, I will not engage in any external or private activities which will result in a conflict or potential conflict of interest with any of my duties as a public sector employee. Detailed provisions regarding disclosure of conflict of interest are contained in legislation, instruments and policy binding public sector employees. Without detracting from any such legislation, instruments or instructions, in any case where there is any possible doubt regarding a potential conflict of interest between my personal interests or that of an associate (as that term is defined in the Public Sector (Honesty and Accountability) Act 1995) and my duties and/or role as a public sector employee, I undertake to seek advice and instruction from an appropriate supervisor.

EMPLOYMENT BASED ON PROVISION OF TRUE AND CORRECT INFORMATION

I declare that the information in this declaration, and in any other documents completed by me in support of my application for employment in the Department for Correctional Services and the information provided by me during any assessments and interviews in connection with my application for employment in the Department for Correctional Services, is true and correct in every detail. I also understand that any offer of employment to me in the Department for Correctional Services will be expressly on the basis that the information that I have provided in relation to my application for employment is true and correct in every detail. I understand that any incorrect statement in connection with my application for employment in the Department for Correctional Services may lead to a rejection of my application for employment, or, in the event that I am offered employment in the Department for Correctional Services, make me liable to disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment.

Furthermore, I hereby authorise the Department for Correctional Services to conduct further checks upon lodging an application for employment and, if any offer of employment is made, during the course of my employment, with any Australian State or Federal Police Department in respect of charges and offences and with any other relevant authorities, for any relevant information including disclosure of further information in relation to any National Criminal History Checks and any associated police history information. In addition, I hereby consent to any relevant authorities and the South Australian Police providing the Department for Correctional Services further information including relating to any National Criminal History Checks, any associated police history information and any charges that may be laid against me upon lodging an application for employment and, if any offer of employment is made, during the course of employment. In particular, the South Australian Police may disclose any personal information arising from such checks and charges to the Department for Correctional Services under any privacy law or principles.
